Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act 2021 (CRRSAA)

(HEERF2) Student Application

The U.S. Department of Education has provided additional funds to Ross Medical Education Center/Ross College ("ROSS") to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students in our institution who have incurred costs related to COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic. In order for a student to be eligible they must attest to having experienced an expense/emergency costs due to the coronavirus pandemic as noted below. The student will need to be actively pursuing an education with ROSS and will only be eligible for one grant using the CRRSAA funds. If a student received a grant under the previous CARES Act program they may not utilize this grant for an expense paid with the previous grant. Students also have the option to use the grant to pay down a balance owed to ROSS. The amounts are determined by the Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) which is pulled from your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). There are three tiers of funding: Tier 1: 0 Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) $1,500.00. Tier 2: Pell recipient with non-Zero Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) $1,000.00. Tier 3: Non-Pell Recipient Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) $500.00.

I, _____ attest to having incurred one or more of the expenses/emergency costs due to the coronavirus pandemic. These funds must be used for one of the mentioned items in the previous statement. Please check the box for the expense incurred and provide a brief description. Forms not completed as required will be rejected. Send the completed form via email to financialaid@rosseducation.edu or mail to Ross Education LLC, Attn: CFO, 22800 Hall Road, Suite 800, Clinton Township, MI 48036 or hand deliver to a staff member at the campus.
