ROSS MEDICAL EDUCATION CENTER
Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students
Under the Coronavirus AID, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act

The U.S. Department of Education has provided funds to Ross Medical Education Center to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students of our institution who need financial support for their expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to Coronavirus. Each student will only be eligible for one grant. If you did not experience expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to Coronavirus, or did experience expenses but do not feel that you need an emergency grant, please let us know. We will award the funds to another student in need. Expense related items include the following: food expenses, housing expenses, course materials, technologies associated with attending online courses, health care costs, and childcare expenses. Only Active Title IV eligible students who enrolled in on campus courses starting on or before April 7, 2020 will qualify.
